Hays' Liniment.—The only true and genuine Hays', and so declared by the oath of Mr. Solomon Hays, has never been made known to any person or persons except to Messrs. Comstock and Co., and they only have the right to prepare the said genuine Liniment, which has established a reputation for effectually curing the Piles in every case, and in all the various stages of the complaint: also Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Sprains, Bruises, Sores and Ulcers of long standing. All who have ever used it are highly pleased with its effects, and all who are in need of cures for any of the complaints mentioned, are respectfully requested to ask any one who has ever used it. And we refer with confidence to all who know of the article, and especially to Matthew J. Myers, Esq. Athens, N. Y., and Gen. Duff Green, late of Washington city, all of whom speak in the strongest terms and with the fullest confidence from personal application and knowledge of its positive and never failing cures.

LOOK OUT.—Some swindlers have counterfeited this article, and put it up with various devices. Do not be imposed upon. One thing only will protect you—it is the name of Comstock and Co., that name must be always on the wrapper, or you are cheated. Do not forget it. Take this direction with you and test by it, or never buy; for it is impossible for any other to be true or genuine.

Sold wholesale by Comstock and Co., 2 Fletcher street, N. Y., and by nearly every storekeeper in America.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Dr. TALBOT, Fayette.

Look Out!!—"Caution" is the Parent of Safety.—An attack of the "Piles" may be positively prevented by using (when the preliminary symptoms are felt) the celebrated HAYS' LINIMENT.—There are more than one hundred people in this city, and in the United States an immense number, who have suffered beyond endurance by this dreadful complaint, who keep themselves wholly free from attacks by applying this Liniment when they feel any symptoms of its approach: of this there is the most perfect proof.

None genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. written on the wrapper.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Dr. TALBOT, Fayette.

Caution Circular.—To Druggists and Country Merchants.

These valuable articles OLDRIE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA for the Hair, and HAYS' LINIMENT for the Piles, &c. have been extensively counterfeited. Those wanting these preparations, will please always write, when ordering from any other house, for Comstock's articles. The true articles have the name or signature always on the wrapper, and vendors will do well to remember that when ordering, as the imitations are so exposed in nearly all the newspapers throughout the country, that they could not be sold, should they be so unfortunate as to get them.

Our friends throughout the Union are requested to give us immediate notice, by letter, should any of the counterfeiters appear in their respective places.

Respectfully,
COMSTOCK & CO.
Wholesale Druggists, 2 Fletcher st., N. Y.

Oldrie's Balm of Columbia.—This article was first introduced into the New York market about 20 years since, and from its superior virtues in restoring hair when it has fallen out, leaving the head free from dandruff, (a most loathsome article on a gentleman's coat collar,) and giving a softness and beautiful lustre unknown before to the hair, has induced some persons to get up and advertise many other articles for the same purpose, none of which stand the test of trial, professing as most of them do, to be oils of various kinds, all of which are positively injurious to the human hair. Let none be deceived, no other article will make the hair grow rapidly and of a good quality; but the Balm of Columbia, and no article purporting to be the Balm of Columbia is genuine without the name of Comstock & Co. on the outside wrapper. Some have been deceived and obtained a counterfeit article for the true and genuine Balm of Columbia. Remember to look for the name of Comstock & Co. on the wrapper, before you purchase, and get none but the genuine. Don't be deceived with the assurance that any without the name of Comstock & Co. is made in the same way and is just as good, all such pretensions are false and known to be so by the Counterfeiter.

Sold at No. 2 Fletcher street, N. Y., by Comstock & Co., and by nearly every storekeeper throughout America.

For sale at the Drug and Bookstore of Doctor TALBOT.

To the Bald Headed.—This is to certify, that I have been bald about 20 years, and by the use of the genuine BALM OF COLUMBIA, my head is now covered with hair. I shall be happy to convince any one of the fact that will call and see me at Delhi village. The above article I bought at Griswold, Case and Co.'s store, who had it from Comstock and Co.

John H. Potts,
RESPECTFULLY informs his friends, and the public, that in addition to his other business, he will hereafter devote particular attention to

DENTAL SURGERY.
He inserts Teeth on gold plate and pivots, so natural as to escape detection; and prove nearly or quite as useful as the natural Teeth, for the ordinary purposes of life; and a single number will contain more teeth than the Brother Jonathan. This sheet will be called the BOSTON NOTION, and it is determined it shall fully sustain a common sense of full meaning, and so interwoven with the established character of our Yankee City: It will be the largest newspaper in the world—and no exception, and will be printed on a sheet thirty inches by fifty two inches. It will be entirely filled with reading matter; and will contain three thousand eight hundred and eighty eight square feet of print in fine type; and a single number will contain more reading than an ordinary book of three hundred pages—These great dimensions will enable the publisher to draw largely upon the most popular periodicals and magazines of the day, both American and Foreign; and as the selections will be made with great care, it is believed this paper will be a welcome NOTION in every family. Besides a new synopsis of the current news of the day (as published in the Boston Daily Times) it will contain Poetry, Popular Tales, Theatrical Criticisms, Police, and other Court Reports, Humorous articles, &c. &c.

The whole world of literature will be transcribed to fill it. From the study of Philosophy, down to the Police Court, through all the regions of reason, poetry, romance, wit, and the ample record of folly, we shall glean from the past and present, and from all nations, to present as pleasing and useful combinations of recurred thoughts and current history, as the world can produce. This is our "BOSTON NOTION."

The great amount of wisdom and fun—of wit and philosophy—of novelties and antiquities—we are enabled to offer weekly for six cents per copy; only six cents and we can do it because of the facilities of our press and office, and the connections of daily and weekly publications. For three dollars we can sell a year's volume equal in quality of matter, with every variety also, to fifty two volumes of novels, such as are issued from the press of this day. Fifty two large volumes for three dollars! Effected all by improved machinery, and by a determination that we will not be outdone in enterprise and usefulness.

TERMS.
Three Dollars a year, always in advance. No orders, no matter from what source, will be attended to, unless accompanied with the CASH. Single copies, six cents each.

Post Masters or others, remitting twenty dollars shall have eight copies sent to such persons and places as they may designate.

Mail subscribers will have their papers deposited in the Post Office in this city every Saturday evening.

GEORGE ROBERTS, Publisher.
Postscript. THE NOTION will be published on a DOUBLED SHEET, every three months and sent gratuitously to all subscribers who have paid for one year.

THE NEW-YORKER.

PROSPECTUS FOR THE YEAR 1841.

A NEW volume of THE NEW-YORKER—the VIIIth annual of the Folio and the Xth semi-annual of the Quarto edition—will commence on the 20th of March next. It will be printed on entirely new and beautiful type, with every attention to neatness and elegance as well as interest and substantial worth, and no pains spared to render it worthy of the public favor and esteem which it has hitherto enjoyed. The grounds on which the publishers appeal to the reading public for a continuance and extension of its patronage are briefly as follows:

I. The New-Yorker is devoted, more considerably than any other Literary Journal, to scientific and useful intelligence. All new discoveries in Science or Art, all movements tending to improve the condition of Man, mentally, morally, or physically, are eagerly chronicled in its columns.

II. The Editor will labor, with whatever energies he possesses, to advance the cause of Moral Reform, and of Social well-being. No article of licentious or immoral tendency is allowed a place in its columns.

III. Although THE NEW-YORKER takes no part in political contests, yet all Political Intelligence of interest is carefully, impartially, and lucidly presented in its columns. The results of all the Elections are especially stated with great care and fidelity. It is believed that in this respect no paper anywhere, has labored to obtain a higher reputation than this.

IV. In its Literary Contents, while efforts are made to minister acceptably to all tastes, but those of the impure and vicious, Utility will be regarded as more important than mere Amusement, or the captivation of barren minds. Tales, Poems, Reviews, and Essays, will be judiciously intermingled in its columns, but always with anxious reference to the mental and moral improvement as well as entertainment of the reader.

V. Although the New-Yorker is printed on a large and improved type, and is not so large as some of the other papers, yet it is so arranged that it cannot hold it in its hands, or find time in the course of a week to peruse it thoroughly. We deem this a merit.
